

COME TO A STORY-TELLING WORKSHOP

Presented by the
Vermont STORYLAB

Are you a person with a disability or a family member? Do you want to have a greater influence on big, statewide decisions that impact Vermonters with disabilities?

Learn how to craft your story by attending a FREE storytelling workshop. Vermont STORYLAB will teach you how to select details and tell your story so that you inspire action by others.

Be sure to RSVP within three days of the listed workshop date.

vtddc@vermont.gov
1 \(802\) 828-1310

Learn more about VTDDC:
<https://ddc.vermont.gov/>

Attend any one of the three workshops nearest to you, and tune-in to the follow-up online call to trouble-shoot, share “ah-ha” moments, and show off your new skills!

WHEN: October 15, 6:00 to 8:30 pm.

WHERE: South Burlington Library
University Mall
155 Dorset Street
South Burlington, VT

WHEN: October 22, 6:00 to 8:30 pm.

WHERE: Green Mountain Self-Advocates
2 Prospect Street
Montpelier, VT

WHEN: October 29, 6:00 to 8:30 pm.

WHERE: Brooks Memorial Library
224 Main Street
Brattleboro, VT